Web/E-mail: The CS101 website and your MIX e-mail account are the primary outside-of-class means through which we distribute information. It is your responsibility to be familiar with all provided information. You will not receive accommodations for failing to check these sources daily.

When communicating with your supervising instructor or the Course Coordinator, please be sure to identify your name, your course section, and clearly explain your question or concern.

MyID Account: Your MyID account will be used to login to CS101 computers and websites. You must activate your MyID account at http://myid.wvu.edu before use. If you encounter problems with MyID, call OIT Help Desk at (304) 293-4444.

It is your responsibility to have a working MyID account. Failure to do so may keep you from completing required tasks and can impact your grade.

Academic The integrity of the classes offered by any academic institution solidifies the foundation of its mission and cannot be sacrificed to expediency, ignorance, or blatant fraud. Therefore, the instructor will enforce rigorous standards of academic integrity in all aspects and assignments of this course.

Examples of academic integrity violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Inappropriate use of CS490 or CS101 resources including but not limited to homework projects and examples.
- Assisting a CS101 student in violating that course's academic integrity policy.
- Making fraudulent or dishonest statements regarding your work.
- Plagiarism.

A range of penalties is possible for academic integrity violations. The standard penalties are listed below, but more severe penalties including an unforgivable F for the course can be applied.

Occurrence	Standard Penalties
First Occurrence or	Failing grade (F) for the course.
After

If an academic integrity violation is suspected, you will be notified via e-mail or certified mail. You may appeal to the course coordinator within 7 calendar days of the notice. Failure to appeal or reply within this time period will be considered an admission of guilt and applicable penalties will be applied.

Additional information on WVU's academic integrity policy is available at http://studentlife.wvu.edu/office of student conduct/student conduct code. If you have any questions about this policy or if an activity is allowed, it is your responsibility to check with your supervising instructor or the Course Coordinator beforehand.

Attendance: Regular attendance by proctors is critical to the success of the proctor program. Proctors are expected to attend every scheduled class session or Open Lab shift.

In the event that a proctor cannot attend a scheduled shift, they are responsible for notifying their supervising instructor, preferably in advance.

If proctors have multiple absences, it may be necessary for them to work additional time to make-up. Excessive unexcused absences may impact a proctor's grade.

Class Cancellations:	On rare occasions, CS101 classes or Open Lab may be cancelled. If this occurs, you will be notified by MIX e-mail and the CS101 website.
Class and Open Lab Conduct:	<ul> <li>Be attentive during class meetings.</li> <li>Do not be late to arrive or early to leave.</li> <li>Do not be disruptive to others.</li> <li>Cell phones and pagers must be set to vibrate or turned off during class.</li> <li>Physical abuse of equipment or furniture will not be tolerated.</li> <li>Instructors, proctors, staff, and other students are to be treated in a professional, courteous manner.</li> </ul>
Time and Workload Expectation:	In addition to the scheduled time spent with CS101 course sections or in CS101 Open Lab, proctors will have a small additional time commitment to read course materials and prepare for class. In general, this should not be more than 1 hour per week.
	Superproctors and those assigned to special projects will have additional time commitments.
Enrollment:	By WVU policy, you must be properly enrolled and current on all billings to participate in class. If you are removed from the course for non-payment, it is your responsibility to resolve the problem with the Office of the University Registrar and Student Accounts . You may lose credit for work due while you are not enrolled.
Privacy:	Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 and WVU policy , students have a right to the privacy of their academic information. A FERPA release must be on file with CS101 before we can release information on a student's performance to outside parties including a student's parents. Granting access to the Parent/Guest Portal is not sufficient to allow the release of CS101 information.
	Use of CS101 computers and systems may be monitored.
Disabilities:	If you believe that you have a disability that may affect your performance in this course, it is your responsibility to contact the WVU Office of Disability Services at (304) 293-6700. Documentation from Disability Services must be provided to your instructor before any accommodations can be granted.
	If you are authorized for and wish to receive accommodations for an exam, you must notify your instructor at least one week in advance. If you do not arrange accommodations in advance, they will not be given. Any rescheduled exams must be taken during the same calendar week (Monday-Friday) as the original date.
Student Services:	Links to student services provided by WVU are available at http://www.wvu.edu/currentstudents/ .
Social Justice:	The West Virginia University community is committed to creating and fostering a positive learning and working environment based on open communication, mutual respect, and inclusion.
